

Conference Presentations

01

Title: Community Engagement and Co-Development in Designing Non-Communicable Disease Interventions: Case study of HEKIMA Abstract 167

02

Burden and Perception of Overweight and Obesity as a Risk Factor to Cardiovascular Diseases in Vihiga County, Kenya Abstract 144

03

Using community assets to improve access to cardiovascular disease prevention services: Case study of Health Kiosks in Markets. Abstract 143

04

Association between nutrition knowledge and practice and cardiovascular disease risk factors among community members in Vihiga County. Abstract 98

05

Effect of covid-19 pandemic response measures on social life in two border counties of Kenya. Abstract 57

06

Systems thinking with stakeholders to strengthen primary health care in Kenya: concept mapping in the Health Kiosk in Markets "HEKIMA" study, Vihiga Kenya. Abstract 003

07

Preparedness of primary care and community markets to develop a system interface to drive health equity: The Health Kiosk in Markets "HEKIMA" study in Vihiga, Kenya. Abstract 111

08

Health System Response to Covid 19 in Border Counties in Kenya Abstract 009

09

Socio-economic status and knowledge of COVID-19 prevention measures in border counties of Busia and Mandera Abstract 56